This musical score is for a piece titled "Black & White Rag". It is written for piano and handbells. The score consists of six systems of music, each with a piano part (treble and bass staves) and a handbell part (single staff). The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 2/4. The piano part features a complex, fast-paced melody with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The handbell part provides a rhythmic accompaniment, often using chords and single notes. The score includes a repeat sign with first and second endings in the third system. The fifth system includes specific instructions for the handbells, with "R.H." (Right Hand) and "L.H." (Left Hand) labels above and below the staff, indicating which hand plays which part. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the sixth system.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time, featuring a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of six systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The notation includes various musical symbols such as eighth notes, sixteenth notes, chords, and dynamic markings. The first system shows a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the bass and a melody in the treble. The second system continues this pattern with some melodic variation. The third system introduces a first and second ending for the treble staff, with the first ending leading back to an earlier section and the second ending concluding the phrase. The fourth system features a triplet of eighth notes in the treble, marked with an '8' and a bracket. The fifth system continues with similar triplet patterns. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final cadence, marked with an '8' and a bracket, and a fermata over the final chord.
